JUDGE DID DOUBLE DUT

Mr. Kimball Presides Over Both the Police Courts.

BRUTAL ASSAULT CASE

George Watkins Given Three Months for Attacking a White Girl-Voodoo Dr. Brooks Will Work His Charms on the Farm-Other Cases Disposed of by His Honor.

Judge Kimball sat in both the upper and ower courts this morning, and discharged the double duties with as much case and rapidity as he is wont to exhibit in fulfilling his duties in the lower court.

George Watkins, a colored boy, who has been raised in a white family, was charged with assaulting Susan Beall, a white chambermaid, in the Richmond flats. The assault occurred on July 22, and the police have been looking for Watkins since that time. Susie is a frail, refined little girl and she said she never had to work until her father died.

Then the little bome was broken up, and she had been compelled to find em ployment at the flats. On the 22d of July she had to go another floor, and had started for the elevator. Watkins refused to let her get in the lift. There was no rule to the contrary, so Susie protested that she would not take the long walk up the stairs. KICKED HER BRUTALLY.

Very much vexed at his refusal, Susk in her rage spat at the boy and then ran. Watkins pursued her up the stairs, and unable to escape, she crouched in the corner and then the brute kicked her in the abdomen. He then escaped and lay in hiding ontil last night when Policeman Joyce, who was out for a spin on wheel, saw the boy skulking down K

Watkins ran, but the cycling officer is an expert and soon overtook him. The girl lay sick for weeks at the Emergency Hospital, and her life was despaired of by the physicians. Watkins got off with three months in jail.

Richard Ford had to answer to an assault on Carrie Powell. Carrie turned a badly disfigured ocular organ up at his honor and asked him if that wasn't a beauty. His honor was a little taken back at the question, but replied that it was, and intimated that a pretty heavy fist had been forcibly pushed into Carrie's eye.

"Do it look like it were a fist?" queried Carrie

"What was it?" asked the judge. "How did I know. Did you ever see any-body who was knocked down and knocked out at de same time who knowed what hit

Ford was given thirty days in fall. DEALT IN SPELLS.

William C. Brooks, the voodoo doctor, who was arrested on the charge of being a suspicious character, was the next one. He is an old, decrepit man, who has during the creater part of the four score years which he has lived done many queer jobs. He is the embodiment of speils and spooks. The people in the neighborhood are sure Brooks is in cohoots with his Satanic Majesty Annie Minor says that the doctor whispered to her that "a black woman had crossed her luck, and she had better catch and kill a glow worm from the graveyard."

Annie went to the graveyard, but could not find such a rarity as a glow worm. Another colored girl who was about to be married said that Brooks had said to her that she would die within three months if she didn't have all of the spells taken away Brooks once served eight years for some such practices which were proved upon him. Th doctor took the stand and said it was all a put-up job on him. He tried to go back and

JUST A FAMILY JAR. George Beam and his lawful and wedded wife, Johanna, indulged in a flatiron throw ing contest. George wished Johanna would leave the house, and Johanna that was the very thing she'd do. So she began to move out, but George choked and beat herso her so that she was glad to get off without carrying a way anything. George got thirty Patrick O'Neili came into court as usua after pension day. Last quarter be came in drunk and was given sixty days. He has been out about a month, but as soon as he got his money on Wednesday his good resolutions were broken. Judge Kimball took pity on the poor old fellow and Confederate Veterans Said to Have Held a Warm Meeting.

Vice President Colonna Tendered His Resignation, But It Was Not Agcepted-Others Wanted to Go.

The regular monthly meeting of the Confederate Veterans' Association was held last night, and it is understood that the session was as stormy as the days of '61 The secretary read the minutes of the previous meeting, which was largely made up of the proceedings relative to the position of First Vice President Colonna, and when reference was made to the action of that meeting, at which an effort was made to depose the first vice president, the war began. On the conciusion of this portion of th business of the meeting, a bomb was thrown in the form of a formal tender of resignation by Dr. Colonna. This raised the house, and to the right and left there was heavy skirmishing.

Mr. Monroe, who figured conspicuously in the efforts made at the previous meeting to cause the first vice president to re sign, and made the original motion to that effect, was appointed a committee of one to wait upon Dr. Colonna and ask that gen A resolution, it is said, was offered to dismiss all delinquents, which was strongly opposed by Maj. WOMAN'S DISPENSARY. Magrader Mancaster, M. D., secretary, makes the following statement: "In making a report of the Woman's Dispensary for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1895, we desire to call particular atten tion to the large amount of medical and surgical relief that has been afforded the poor people of that section out of the small amount of money allowed by the District ommissioners, together with the slight aid from donors.

SUGAR BARONS THWARTED

Mr. Bowler Renders an Opinion Adverse to the Bounty.

He Declares the Claims Are Not Authorized by Law-Must Seek a Remedy in the Courts.

Comptroller of the Treasury Bowler yesterday afternoon rendered a decision in the sugar bounty care, to the effect that he has jurisdiction, by reason of his official position, to pass upon the Constitu tionality of an act of Congress, and that the act of March 2, 1895, appropriating $5,238,289 for the payment of bounties is unconstitutional

Mr. Powler has given instructions that the papers in the care be sent to the Court of Claims for the rendition of a judgment in order that there may be furnished "a precedent for the future action of the Executive Department in the adjustment of the class of cases involved in these sugar bounties." In passing upon the Constitutionality of the act the Comptroller says that taxation must be for a public purpore; that an attempt to take money from the peor by the forms of taxation for a purpose other than a public one is not an exercise of legislative power, and, therefore, that an attempt to do so is a mere nullity as an effort by the legislature to exercise power not granted by the Constitution.

Manufacturing establishments have been uniformly treated as private rather than public enterprises. Numerous decisions show that factories of all kinds, saw mills rolling mills, &c., are all private, and in no sense public enterprises

The only cases cited as apparently justifying bounties of a character similar to the sugar bounties were the Michigan salt cases, but the constitutionality of the Mich. igan statute was never passed upon by the Supreme Court of Michigan or of the United States. After reviewing the power of Coppress so far as justice and equity are concerned and declaring it impossible in legislation to ignore law, Mr. Bowier says the bounty provided by the act of March 2 is not limited to those who have suffered injury by failure to receive the bounty of the Me-Kinley act, but is given to all alike, whether they suffered loss or not. There is nothing which indicates that it was intended to make compensation for such injury, and that cannot be implied. The provision now under consideration is simply the continuation in full of the bounty provision of the McKinley act for the benefit of those who had falled to receive that which they had already earned under the McKinley act up to August 28, the date of its repeal. If the comptroller should pass the claim, he says, the money of the people will be tak-en from the Treasury in payment of demands not authorized by law, if the appropriation is in fact unconstitutional. By a refusal to pass the claims the ultimate rights of the claimants are in no way affected, for they have a perfect remedy in court to test the validity of their claims and obtain payment thereof after a final determination of the constitutionality of the law, if it be held constitutional.
